

MOOG® Studs

Designed to Perform. Made to Last.

The stud is a critical component of rotational chassis parts like ball joints and tie rod ends—and it's essential that it is correctly designed and manufactured from the right steel alloy. Like all MOOG steering and suspension components, MOOG studs are made for long-lasting, problem-solving performance.

Heat Treated.
Longer Lasting.
Resists Fracturing.

FULL-BALL
DESIGN

GREASE
GROOVES

NECK

LARGE END OF THE TAPER

Visit moogparts.com/technologies to learn more about MOOG technologies!

MOOG®

The Problem Solver®